Swan Lake/ Loch na hEala

Wed 31st January & Thur 1st February at 8pm

Directed by Michael Keegan-Dolan – Teac Darmsa

Presented by Nomad Theatre Network

Tickets: €25/€20

A stunning show.

Following a critically acclaimed international tour.

Featuring a cast of thirteen, including Mikel Murfi, this Swan Lake is rooted in a place where ancient Irish mythology and modern Ireland meet. Slow Moving Clouds have created a new score that combines Nordic and Irish traditional music with minimalist and experimental influences. The result is a Swan Lake for our time and a stunning debut for Keegan-Dolan's new company, Teac Darmsa.

“Swan Lake / Loch na hEala, rolls drama, dance and music together to create a haunted and haunting piece...It’s a show can that be both ugly and extraordinarily beautiful, as it shifts through darkness to an eruption of light and joy at the end.” - The Financial Times *****

The Observer**

The Evening Standard**

- Winner Best Production Irish Times Theatre Awards 2017.

NB: Not suitable for under 16s. Please note latecomers will not be admitted to this show.

THEATRE

Fri 9th & Sat 10th February at 8pm

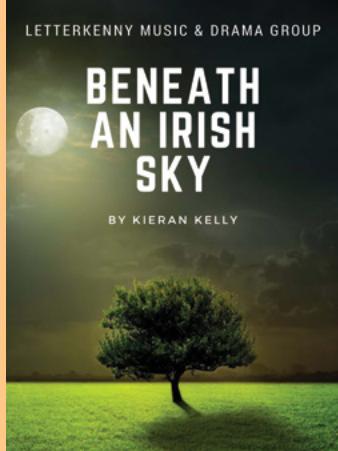

One Night Stands

PlayStation Theatre Co

Tickets: €18/€15

From the writer who brought you Packie's Wake, Eddie Kerr. One Night Stands transports the audience to a dancehall on the West Coast of Ireland. The year is 1961 and it is St. Valentine's Night. Derry showband the Barracudas are playing their first gig in a syndicated ballroom; a real big deal for the band on the cusp of greatness, if they do 'it' tonight celebrity status is within their reach. There has never been a more important night for the band and their innovative leader 'Flash Harry' McCann. Can they pull it off?You'll just have come along and see when the play hits the stage!

Suitable ages 15+.

Tues 13th February at 8pm

Beneath an Irish Sky

Letterkenny Music and Drama Group

Tickets: €15/€12

Inspired by archive reports and eyewitness testimonies, a new play by Kieran Kelly that looks at the events of the 'decade of change' from a Donegal perspective. Set in Letterkenny between the years 1914–1924, it tells the fictionalised account of one man Brendan McDevitt, questioning what made him pick up a gun to fight for his country and how he was affected by the seismic events unfolding around him - from World War 1, through the War of Independence and up to the Civil War, and shows how these events convinced him to move from the peaceful Nationalism of the Ancient Order of Hibernians into the more militant Republicanism of Sinn Féin. This life altering decision will have far reaching implications for both himself and his family. First performed in the theatre as a rehearsed reading in 2016, this updated version will tour the National Drama Festival Circuit for the LMDG.

The Successful TD by John B Keane

Tickets: €25, 4 for €90

Starring Jon Kenny and Mary McEvoy and peppered with Keane's gallery of madcap characters this show will have you laughing from the start! The Successful TD follows the trials, tribulations, misadventures and hilarious antics of Tull McAdoo as he seeks re-election to the Dail in the October Elections. Tull has roped in the help of his faithful daughter Kate while his wife nurses her various ailments in bed or Lisdoonvarna, but his arch enemy Flannery the local school teacher plans to scupper the election for Tull...

Tues 6th March at 7pm (also schools show at 11am)

Private Peaceful

Verdant and Pemberley Productions

Tickets: €18/16 and for the schools show €8

Following on from the worldwide success of Michael Morpurgo's War Horse, Simon Reade adapts and directs this stage version of Morpurgo's award winning book Private Peaceful. A reminder of the sacrifices that were made by those involved in World War 1, the story charts the life of a young soldier, Tommo Peaceful, a private who faces the firing squad for cowardice. As he sits in his cell awaiting for sunrise, Tommo thinks back to some of his fondest memories and reflects on the events that made him the person he is today. When the lines of heroism and cowardice collide, what can one man do to fight the injustices of it all?.

"Shane O'Regan gives a truly astonishing performance"

Waiting For Godot

Tues 13th to Thur 15th March at 8pm

Druid Theatre Co

Tickets: €25/€20

Directed by Garry Hynes

Starring Garrett Lombard, Aaron Monaghan,

Rory Nolan and Marty Rea

On a bare road in the middle of nowhere, two world-weary friends await the arrival of the mysterious Godot. While waiting, they speculate, bicker, joke and ponder life's greater questions. As dusk begins to fall, two figures appear on the horizon.

Regarded as one of the most significant plays of the twentieth century, Waiting for Godot by Samuel Beckett is a masterpiece that draws endless interpretations.

"The freshest, funniest and most affecting production of the play in at least a quarter of a century"
– The Irish times

"Superb re-imagining of an iconic play"- The Guardian

THEATRE

Wed 28th & Thur 29th March at 8pm

Dancing at Lughnasa

Lifford Players

Tickets: €15/€12

It is 1936 and harvest time in County Donegal. In a house just outside the village of Ballybeg live the five Mundy sisters, barely making ends meet, their ages ranging from twenty six up to forty. The two male members of the household are brother Jack, a missionary priest, sent home from Africa by his superiors after twenty five years, and the seven-year-old child of Chris, the youngest sister. In depicting two days in the lives of this family, Brian Friel evokes not simply the interior landscape of a group of human beings trapped in their domestic situation, but the wider landscape of which they are a part.

Sat 7th April at 8pm

The Good Father

Rise Productions

Tickets: €15/€12

After the international success of Fight Night and The Games People Play, the multi award-winning Rise Productions returns with this touching story celebrating the triumph of hope.

New Year's Eve. A house party like any other, in a suburb like any other. Two very different strangers meet, each looking for a new start and to shake off the disappointments of the past. But champagne, cheap lager and their chance encounter leads this unlikely couple to an unplanned pregnancy. Against all odds, can they make their newfound family a success?

Winner of the Stewart Parker Award, this heartfelt, moving drama charts their journey of love, loss, and redemption. Writer Christian O'Reilly, 2017 Pavilion Bursary Award Winner, also wrote the film Sanctuary.

Suitable ages 15+

MUSICALS

Tues 27th February to Sat 3rd March at 8pm

9 to 5: The Musical

Letterkenny Musical Society

Tickets: €20/€18 Tues to Thurs, €20 Fri/Sat

This is a fun and fast paced stage show based on the much loved 1980 film written by and starring Dolly Parton. However, this is a show that goes way beyond country music, spanning a range of genres from rock to swing, as well as the inevitable torch ballad or two. In 1979, Consolidated Industries is not the best place in which to work as a woman. 9 to 5 centres on three of them, who find that when they work together, they can achieve great things. Experience insanely catchy songs, great gags and a rip-roaring story to boot!
